Janet Shaw

Avid Offline Editor

Profile

Collaborative, creative and adaptable Janet is a brilliant editor who splits her time between her home country, Australia, together with work in the UK and other worldwide locations. Great with story and equally good at pacing and visual flair. Janet has been praised for being super fast in her editing, having cut many shows in both the UK and Australia with an incredibly fast turnaround whilst not compromising on style and creativity. She is happy to take direction but also happy to offer up suggestions or solutions be they technical or narrative based. She has a sunny, upbeat personality which makes her a pleasure to work with even under stressful situations.
